

WHY KNOWLES CENTRE?

Almost 130 full-time, part-time and casual employees are making a career with Knowles Centre today.

Together, these dedicated individuals provide a range of therapeutic and skills-based services to help young people and their families to address past struggles, to develop healthier relationships and ways of life, and to reach their full potential in the future.

There are great job opportunities open to those who know making a BIG difference starts with the little things.

- Join a team of committed people who are interested in helping youth find their way
- Use your life experiences, knowledge and interests to help youth learn and grow
- Work in a culturally diverse environment, plus expand your knowledge of indigenous culture
- Take part in regular professional and career development training at no cost to you
- Earn a competitive salary
- Enjoy three weeks of vacation after one-year of employment (part-time and casual employees receive equivalent prorated vacation benefits)
- Benefit from a group pension plan and an extended health plan (regular employees over .75 eft)
- Free parking, employee appreciation perks, and lots of opportunities to have fun!

College and university students may be able to plan shifts around their school schedule for many positions, plus gain valuable work experience for careers in social services, healthcare, teaching, justice, community development, and more.

Aboriginal and LGBTQ2S+ individuals are especially encouraged to apply!

Visit us at www.knowlescentre.org/careers for our current job openings and to find an application form.

